

Communication Crystal

Communication Crystal enjoys sharing her learning with others - pupils, staff and home. She has super hearing so that she can pick up every sound carefully. She has super eyes so that she doesn't miss any details. She makes sure that her message is clear. She uses her art tools to create interesting displays to pass on information. She has volume control to communicate with a partner, group, class or big audience.